

Who am I? I'm an entrepreneur, C.E.O. and creative director of 727 Marketing LLC. I've been building, growing and learning my business for over 15 years. I graduated from The American Academy of Art with a design in 3D Animation and Modeling. My business focus is solution with a strategic basis that lead to increases in revenue and productivity. I believe no matter how many strategies you throw at a thing, or how much effort you push something with, you want the Will of God to align you to the things and decisions He has over your life. He has blessed you with certain talents and skills to be used for His glory.
